4.1.2 The institution has adequate facilities for sports, games (indoor, outdoor), gymnasium, yoga centre etc., and cultural activities

Response: The college students are allowed to utilize the facilities provided by the parent institute in common with other institutions. The campus has all facilities for conducting extra –curricular activities as outdoor sports, indoor games, gymnasium, cultural activities, communication skills development, yoga, health and hygiene etc. The institute encourages the students to participate in several extra-curricular activities. Every year, a cultural programme named “IDEAL KARANDAK” is organized to encourage the students to participate in performing arts. This program is very useful to bring out hidden talent of students. A ‘Sports Karandak’ is also conducted where various competitions take place. Such as

Sr. No.	Ground / Court		Area
1	Cricket Ground	1	150 x 170 Sq.M
2	Basketball Court	1	12 X 10 Sq.M
3	Volleyball Court	1	9 X 18 Sq.M
4	Table Tennis Court	1	11 X 7 Sq.M
5	Football Court	1	54 X 90 Sq.M
6	Hockey Ground	1	54 X 90 Sq.M
7	Kabbadi Ground	1	12 X 10 Sq.M
8	Cultural Hall	1

Interested students in various sports are welcomed to enjoy and participate in the competitions. Presently, the institute has a Cricket team, Volleyball, Football, Basketball; Throw ball, Table Tennis, Carom, GYM team etc... Separate budget is fixed per year for sports. Many of the students have participated at the University, state and national level. Every year we felicitate such students in various programmes to encourage other students.

Chess, Carom etc. are conducted occasionally in the Institute. Separate advanced Gymnasium is available to the student and for the faculties. Entry to the students is absolutely free and Gymnasium is situated in the college campus.

Auditorium: Seminar Hall is used as an auditorium for the institute. It can accommodate 120 students can sit in the hall at a time. The Institute uses the auditorium for guest lectures, various programmes etc.
