7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The institution aims to promote an understanding of constitutional obligations, rights, and duties which is imperative for cultivating a respectful and inclusive environment within the college community. In order to achieve this, the colleges have employed a multifaceted approach that integrates constitutional learning in its day-to-day activities. This involves incorporating constitutional studies into co-curricular activities across all courses for students and other workshops for employees. The institution offers specialized activities or workshops on constitutional law and related subjects, which ensures that students have access to comprehensive resources. Additionally, organizing workshops and seminars featuring legal experts provides a platform to discuss specific constitutional topics such as freedom of speech, equality, due process, and civic responsibilities. These events not only enhance knowledge but also foster critical thinking and awareness among students, faculty and other staff members.

Inclusion of such activities and workshops allows students to express their opinions on constitutional matters that promote a diverse range of perspectives. The use of real-life case studies, including discussions on landmark legal cases, illustrates the practical application of constitutional principles in various situations. By involving student committees in organizing events that focus on constitutional issues, the institution aims to empower students to take an active role in promoting constitutional awareness and understanding.

The institution celebrates Constitution Day where several activities are organised. Activities such as Lok Sabha, Street Play, Poster Making are organised where students actively participate in it. The institution organises general quizzes based on constitution for employees and students. Article writing, debates on topics of constitutional law are all incorporated as a part of sensitization of students. Students enrolled in Pre law Course are introduced to legal concepts and basics of constitution are discussed with them. Preamble of the constitution is put on display in the college premise. Through these activities the institution aims to create a social responsibility among its employees and educates them to work towards the society as part of their civic responsibility. To inculcate the values of social justice the institution organises Legal Aid Awareness Programmes and serve the society Events such as Environment Day, tree plantation drives, beach cleaning as part of cleanliness drives are all carried out. As part of gender sensitization, the institution educates its employees about workplace ethics and guidelines.

By implementing these comprehensive strategies, the institution not only educates individuals about constitutional obligations but also fosters a culture of respect, inclusion, and civic engagement, thereby creating a well-informed and socially responsible academic community.
